Interzone Theatre merges psycho geography with psychoacoustics through composition. It is an exploratory experience where the buildings, parks and waterways serve as a backdrop, and passersby become unwitting extras in a psycho-geographical interactive journey through the cityscape.

Passersby might see the dots but only you can connect them and see the narrative unfolding with each zone you step in.

Headphones essential.

Install the Interzone Theatre app, preload the content as instructed, enable location services, and make sure your phone is charged before you begin.
