RURAL ROUTES: BOLSOVER WALKS:

The Rural Routes: Bolsover Walks was a co-commissioned digital project for Junction Arts and D-Lab. A series of physical and virtual walks around the Bolsover District in Derbyshire. In the same vein as the Wythy Walks the co-walkers walked around different locations, either physically or using Google Maps, guided by the co-walker's own narrative. The initial walks were sound recorded and later developed as a series of re-enacted narratives and measured filmed stills and virtual re-enactments taken from carefully chosen sites.

The commissioned films can be viewed at:
